

Call to the Membership of the World Archaeological Congress for nominations for election of Officers

Notice is hereby given that nominations are due for the following positions of World Archaeological Congress (WAC) Officers for next term of office:

1. President
2. Vice President
3. Treasurer
4. Secretary

Duties as are stated in the WAC Statutes:

ARTICLE 8: Officers

8.1 The Officers of WAC shall be:

- a] the President, who shall be the Chair of the Assembly, Council, and of the Executive and who shall act as returning officer for all elections;
- b] the Vice President who will assist the President in conducting WAC business and promoting the aims of WAC;
- c] the Secretary, who shall be the principal executive officer of WAC and is in charge of the office administration of WAC and, on behalf of the Council, of the hiring and dismissal of any employees of the organisation. Together with the President, Vice President, and Treasurer he/she shall manage all the affairs of WAC. He/she will report to the Executive, Council, and Assembly on his/her activities at each meeting;
- d] the Treasurer, who will prepare the budget of WAC for consideration by the Council and Executive and is responsible for the supervision and management of the financial affairs of WAC.

8.2 The Officers shall be ex officio voting members of the Executive, Council, and of the Assembly.

8.3 The Officers shall hold office for the period from the end of the Assembly meeting at which they are elected, to the end of the Assembly meeting at which new Officers are elected, and may be re-elected.

The Assembly will receive nominations during WAC-6 in Dublin, at a meeting on the afternoon of Tuesday 1 July. The Assembly will vote on nominated candidates, at a meeting in the afternoon of Thursday 3 July.
